

Here are a few ways to give to the Monona Grove Education Foundation, Inc.

- Cash: You can make cash gifts in the form of a check payable to Monona Grove Education Foundation. The benefit of a cash gift is that your dollars begin working immediately.
- Gifts of Appreciated Property: Gifts of appreciated property to benefit Monona Grove Education Foundation can at the same time, generate a tax savings.
- Insurance: Monona Grove Education Foundation can be named as the beneficiary or shared beneficiary in a person's life insurance policy.
- Gifting Through Retirement Plans: Many times if Monona Grove Education Foundation is named a beneficiary of a retirement plan or IRA, the assets will come to the Foundation after the retiree or retiree spouse's death with minimal estate and income tax reductions.
- Will Bequest: A bequest through a person's will is a simple, yet effective, way of providing a gift to Monona Grove Education Foundation. The bequest may be a fixed dollar amount, a bequest of specific property, a bequest of a specific percentage of a person's estate, or a bequest of the residue of a person's estate. The will bequest, of course, is drafted as a provision in a person's will and only takes effect upon a person's death.
